Europe Unit website

1. The Europe Unit website has now been launched. Visit:

www.europeunit.ac.uk

2. The website will operate alongside the monthly newsletter and the regular despatch of the more detailed Europe notes as a way of keeping the sector informed of the relevant issues in European higher education. The site aims to provide a summary of the key issues in European HE and how they affect the UK sector specifically. As a ready source of information, it also features an extensive diary of forthcoming conferences and seminars.
3. The aim of the website is to present the information in a digestible format and, where necessary, direct users to further sites for more detailed and specific information. A regularly updated news section features on the homepage, and all past Unit publications – newsletters, Europe notes and policy papers – are contained in an archive on the site.
